DURBAN; NATAL.

Dear Miss Slater,

With reference to your letter of 20th instant requesting ten copies of RR.227/57, it was considered necessary to consult Miss McKenzie since she had asked us to treat this paper as confidential.

She informed me that she would prefer to send you copies direct from her organization and accordingly I sent her the required number for forwarding to you.

Yours sincerely,

S. Barnett (Miss)

Dear Mr. Whyte,

I shall be most grateful if you can furnish me with ten copies of your circular R.R. 227/57 of 2nd January 1958 which incorporates a letter from the National Council for Child Welfare on the subject of Native Welfare Organisations. I should like to distribute this circular to members of my National Executive with your permission.

A similar letter to the National Welfare Board through the Registrar is under consideration.

Yours sincerely,

JAN 22 1958
